

I find the attempt to limit satellite radio from broadcasting local programming to be reprehensible. I thought we believed in competition in the US. Don't give in to the rich, entrenched broadcasters. Lets get some real stimulative competition going. I want local programming on my satellite radio.